ELECTRICITY.

Out of the three schemes submitted by the Chief Operation Engineer (South) at a total estimated cost of 14.843 lakhs, one scheme at an estimated cost of Rs.2.78 lakhs has been sanctioned by the Government. Further action is being taken by the Electricity Department. It is for consideration whether this amount may be credited to the Electricity Department under the appropriate head and shown as expenditure from Community Project funds.

ANIMAL HUSBANDRY.

XX XX XX

As the retention of the 3 Veterinary dispensaries 6 first aid centres and the Artificial Insemination Centre till the end of Project Period i.e. 30-9-1956 will result in expenditure in excess of the allotments, Govt. have been addressed to make over these institutions to the regular Animal Husbandry Dept. as early as possible. Early orders may be passed.
